

PRESS RELEASE

GAVIN GARDINER TO OFFER A RARE PURDEY RIFLE, BUILT FOR THE PRINCE OF WALES' INDIAN TOUR OF 1875/6 IN DECEMBER SALE.

A rare James Purdey & Sons .360 double barrel hammer rifle, built in 1875 for the Prince of Wales' Indian tour of 1875/6 is among the highlights of Gavin Gardiner Limited's December sale of Modern & Vintage Sporting Guns on Wednesday, December 11, 2019 at Sotheby's, New Bond Street, London W1A 2AA.

The rifle was presented to the Nizam of the Decan, the ruler of the state of Hydrabad, in South Central India, by the Prince of Wales on the tour, and is engraved on the rib "H.H. The Nizam of the Decan from H.R.H. The Prince of Wales, KG, GCSI 1876". It carries a gold oval engraved with the Royal crest and the Order of the Star of India. It is in its original makers case with the Nizam's name on the lid and carries an estimate of £10,000 - 15,000.

As Gavin Gardiner explains: "In October 1875, Albert Edward Prince of Wales, the eldest son of Queen Victoria, embarked on an extensive tour of the Indian subcontinent. Here the Prince visited more than 21 towns and cities before returning to England in May 1876."

He continues: "British monarchs and members of the Royal Family undertook lengthy tours to strengthen ties with other countries, and also to learn more about the culture and history of those regions. The Prince of Wales' tour of India was envisaged as a way of forging diplomatic links between the Indian rulers and the British Crown. The Prince exchanged gifts with each ruler he met and a number of rifles were ordered from Purdey as well as Alexander Henry to

NOTES TO EDITORS:

Gavin Gardiner is the only specialist firearms auctioneer holding his auctions in the heart of London's West End, where he holds two sales each year as well as his prestigious sale at the Gleneagles Hotel, Scotland in August. Gavin has over 20 years experience in this field. Coming from a traditional background, he was brought up with guns and shooting and has been involved with the Gun Trade from an early age. He first worked for Sotheby's in 1982 helping with weekend viewing of a Sporting Gun auction, while still at School. From that moment he was hooked and has been involved in almost every Sotheby's Sporting Gun auction since. His passion became a full time job in 1987 when he joined Sotheby's initially as a porter on a one day a week assignment to the Gun Department, this soon became five days and he never looked back. He has been involved with many memorable auctions over the years, including Sotheby's sales in New York and Geneva as well as the renowned Gleneagles auction that has remained the market leader in this sector for over twenty years. He has also worked for one of the leading London Gunmakers which gives him a unique perspective in this field. Returning to Head Sotheby's Sporting Gun Department Worldwide in 2001 he doubled turnover in his first year, and has continued to develop and refine the auctions since. He left Sotheby's at the beginning of 2006 to establish his own company.
